WATCH FOR THE THREE SPOONS

Region to region, British Columbia presents exceptional culinary tourism experiences.

British Columbia is known for many things, among them: stunning scenery, great golfing, spectacular skiing, award-winning wines and fabulous food. Indeed, a memorable part of any journey is experiencing the local cuisine.

For that reason, Culinary Tourism BC has created a distinct accreditation system – noted by the sign of The Three Spoons – that acknowledges and celebrates BC establishments providing exemplary food and beverage experiences.

Accredited establishments are nominated by industry peers and customers, and receive thorough and impartial on-site evaluations – earning their accreditation solely on merit.

So, as you travel around the city, the region or the province, look for The Three Spoons – your assurance for an authentic and exceptional BC culinary experience.
